In 2016, the spending of pension benefits supported 24,160 jobs which paid nearly $1.1 billion in income in Oklahoma. Oklahoma public employee retirees have not received a COLA in 12 years, hurting them and their local economies.

to take action and learn more, visit ProtectPensions.org/bucks
WE SUPPORT LOCAL BUSINESS

We are your local teachers, firefighters, state troopers and other public employees.

This purchase was made with public employee retirement dollars. totaling $3.5 billion in economic output across Oklahoma.

Each dollar paid out in pension benefits created $1.39 in total economic activity.

Information provided by NIRS and NCPEERS
For full reports, go to protectpensions.org/pensionsonmainstreet