In 2016, the spending of pension benefits supported 5,103 jobs which paid nearly $206.8 million in income in Wyoming. Wyoming public employee retirees have not received a COLA in 11 years, hurting them and their local economies.

to take action and learn more, visit ProtectPensions.org/bucks Each dollar paid out in pension benefits creates $1.22 in total economic activity. This purchase was made with public employee retirement dollars, totaling $792.3 million in economic output across Wyoming.

We are your local teachers, firefighters, state troopers and other public employees.

Information provided by NIRS and NCPERS. For full reports, go to protectpensions.org/pensionsonmainstreet.